

Two Column Layout Test

LEFT-1 The first column begins here and continues for several lines of ordinary prose text. LEFT-2 It describes the background of the problem and the motivation for the study. LEFT-3 This sentence is the last sentence of the left column in this test document.

RIGHT-1 The second column starts here and should be read after the whole left column. RIGHT-2 It describes the experimental setup and the evaluation procedure that was used. RIGHT-3 This sentence is the last sentence of the right column in this test document.